

Speakeasy Murders A Murder Mystery Dinner

Made Possible by Your Generous Support

The Franklin Cultural Arts Center is bringing The Speakeasy Murders to the south suburban communities of Milwaukee County. For the fourth time, the FCAC has worked with the local talents of Scene of the Crime Productions to present a Murder Mystery Dinner. This semi-annual event is always sure to please and this year's theme, set in the roaring 20's is sure to be a sell out event!

We are currently seeking sponsors for this exciting event which is sure to attract an audience from throughout the greater Milwaukee County area and beyond.

Donate Art or entertainment items to the Auction.

To add to the evening's excitement, a live auction of art and entertainment-related items will be held. The FCAC is currently seeking donations of works of art or entertainment - related items such as theater tickets, museum memberships, restaurant gift certificates, and travel vouchers to auction off at the Speakeasy Murder.

Proceeds will be used to continue the FCAC's mission to bring the arts to the south suburban communities.

The FCAC is a federally recognized 501(c)3 non profit organization. Your sponsorship may be tax deductible.

Return to the days when Speakeasies flaunted prohibition and the streets were ruled by the likes of Al Capone and his gang.

Franklin's Polish Community Center will be transformed to a 1920's Speak Easy as the Franklin Cultural Arts Center presents The Speakeasy Murders. This interactive dinner theater is performed by Scene of the Crime Productions. Dinner will be included in the admission price.
